New Lender Recognition Program Launches in 2010

Starting January 1, 2010, Minnesota Housing will begin tracking all first-mortgage loans originated by individual loan officers as part of a new Lender Recognition Program. Minnesota Housing values its partnership with lenders and individual loan officers and wants to recognize the good work being done to offer Minnesota Housing programs to Minnesota's first-time homebuyers.

Top producing loan officers will be rewarded with advertisements paid by Minnesota Housing and will appear with a top producing lender designation in a new lender search engine being launched on the Minnesota Housing website in the coming months.

In order to participate in this program, individual loan officers must be set up as contacts in Minnesota Housing's HDS SF web application under the offices in which they do business, and their name selected on the HDS SF web application prior to each purchase approval.
